Lady Sacks visited Heathlands Village on Monday 29th October 2007. She had a tour of the building and admired our new Sunny Lounge. She complimented the lovely knitting and rug making. Lady Sacks was very impressed with the talent of residents and tenants at Heathlands. She then visited another floor where the residents were enjoying a sing-a-long and saw the arts and crafts room where she enjoyed some of the wonderful paintings.

Following her visit Lady Sacks said Heathlands Village 'is a wonderful place to retire to.'

All of the residents were honoured to meet Lady Sacks and her visit brightened many of their days.
