The residents at Heathlands Village enjoyed a Reception in the new Succah. Jack Maurer provided music on the organ and some Lubavitch boys attended and danced the Kasatzka, and shook the Lulav with the residents. The reception took place on 2nd October at 11am until midday.

Around 40 residents attended along with a few visiting relatives. Everyone was entertained and took pleasure in the party atmosphere.

Reverend Leslie Olsberg was in Heathlands Village for short-term convalescent care and attended the reception and enjoyed eating in the Succah over Yom Tov.
