The new 'Sunny Lounge' at Heathlands Village was officially opened on Sunday 23rd March 2008 by Vitek Frankel and Anna Phillips, children of the late Naomi Frenkel to whose memory the Sunny Lounge has been dedicated. Also opened at the same time was the new Coffee Bar, which was dedicated to the memory of Jean and Harry Green by their sons.

The dedications commenced with the affixing of Mezzuzot to the front entrance by Honorary Chaplain, Rev Leslie Olsberg and John Frenkel.

Rodney Berkeley, Heathlands president, paid tribute to Naomi Frenkel who had been Vice –President and chairman of the Welfare Committee at the time her passing. Rev Olsberg also spoke of the wonderful work done by Naomi Frenkel during her short life.

The Sunny Lounge and Coffee bar are now open to residents, staff and visitors at Heathlands Village and will provide a relaxing environment for people to enjoy light refreshments throughout the day.
