Information

Dolly Phillips MBE celebrated her 105th birthday on 22nd May 2008. Family and friends attended a party at Heathlands Village.

Dolly said "It is fantastic to receive a card from the queen' and her family were please that '4 generations could be here to celebrate her 105th birthday'.

Dolly was one of the original pioneers of the Meals on Wheels scheme which delivers food to poor people across Manchester. She worked there for 87 years before retiring only 2 years ago.

Barbara Goldstone, President of the Jewish Representative Council said 'it is an honour to be here today' and presented Dolly with a bouquet of flowers.
