On 17th July 2008 Dolly Abelson, Fundraising Manager at Heathlands Village, attended a special assembly at King David Junior School. Children from Bar Cochba house have been collecting money for Heathlands Residents. The house raised an amazing £1000. Two pupils read out a beautiful speech about how special heathlands is to them and how they care for older members of our community.

“We are proud to raise money for you. The work that you do is vital to the well-being and comfort of members of our community” Part of the speech from the whole of Bar Cochba house

“The children speech means so much to me and to the residents of Heathlands. They are an example to all of us.” Dolly Abelson, Fundraising Manager, Heathlands Village
