A class of almost 30 children between 2 and 3 years of age at Broughton Jewish Cassel Fox Kindergarten generously donated money to Heathlands Village. The children collected charity donations over the last few months and raised £20 to help Heathlands care for older people. Some of the children have relatives in the residential and nursing home and visit regularly.

Teachers: Mrs Francine Rose, Mrs Rochelle Myers, Mrs Janine Creek, Rhona Segal, Miriam Black and Rachel Shuck met with Dolly Abelson, Fundraising Manager at Heathlands Village to present the cheque.

“It is absolutely fantastic that the youngest members of our community are thinking about the oldest with enthusiasm and love, so a big thank you to all parents and teachers.” Dolly Abelson, Fundraising Manager, Heathlands Village.
